

Dear Organization

My name is Dr. Wanita Mercer, and I am thrilled to share with you my debut book, The Man You Need to Marry. This book is for single and unmarried women who desire to know the characteristics of the man who is spiritually equipped to lead and provide them covenant love despite the many issues, conditions, or insecurities they bear. The book also includes over 30 journaling prompts for reflection and self-assessment regarding one's openness and readiness for a covenant marriage. The book has a 5-star rating on Amazon and is available for purchase at Amazon.com/author/drwanitamercer.

This book's message of covenant love and healthy and Spirit-filled relationships is desperately needed right now, especially for the women you serve. Healing Abuse Working for Change says women between ages 16 and 24 have the highest rate of intimate partner violence: 21% of these women report having experienced dating violence by a current partner and 32% have experienced dating violence by a previous partner. Considering half of abuse goes unreported and the present heightened stress and mental anguish from the pandemic, we can infer those matters have only grown worse, not better. In addition, currently 31% of millennials have no religious affiliation, which is up from 22% a decade ago, and do not attend a church.

The current situation presents you with a great opportunity to connect non-churchgoing women to Christ and provide them with inspiring and transformative teachings on dating and healthy relationships as a part of your organization's offerings. The women you serve need to know that there's a man who's anointed to love them and that they should not settle for anyone less than a man like Jesus. The Man You Need to Marry is rooted in the Word of God and centers around seven relatable women who – amid their pain and suffering - were transformed by the covenant love of Jesus. Their stories are relevant and are sure to connect with yours single, unmarried, and divorced women in a very personal way.

My hope is that you will recommend my book to the women you minister to through your organization and add The Man You Need to Marry book to your organization's library of recommended resources. To assist you, I have written a supplemental e-book entitled IDCL: I Deserve Covenant Love that includes relevant facts, group activities, and discussion questions for hosting an interactive and inspiring 10-week program with small groups. The e-book, book and program flyers, and other resources are available to you for FREE at drwanitamercer.com/idcl.

Thank you for the love, wisdom, and time you devote to ensuring the wellness and development of your female members. My prayer is that you utilize the book and the supplemental e-book to further your organization's agenda and meet your goals. If you have any questions, would like to purchase paperback books in bulk, or would like me to host a program or seminar, contact me at drwanitamercer@outlook.com.

Blessings,
